

Fire Company Meeting Building & Loan Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Narberth Fire Company was held in the Fire House, on Tuesday evening, February 25.

In order to bring the membership list up to date, it was voted to post in the Fire House a copy of that section of the by-laws given below, and to post the names of those affected by the ruling.

ARTICLE VIII.

Section 4. Members shall be regarded as delinquent after failing to pay dues for one year, and their names shall be posted upon the Bulletin Board on the first day of June or the first day of December following, and they shall be liable to suspension and deprivation of membership.

Every householder in Narberth should at least lend their moral and financial support to our Fire Company, the active members of which stand ready at any minute, day or night, to save our properties and treasures from loss by fire.

Councils will provide for the maintenance of the fire fighting apparatus, but there are other expenses to be met, and these are only taken care of by membership dues.

Three dollars a year seems like a small sum for the fellow who sits at home and lets "the other fellow" put out the fire, and if he is a property owner he certainly must feel that they deserve his support.

Come to the Fire House any evening and "join up" or send the $3.00 to Raymond C. Jones, Financial Secretary.

PROPOSED MEMORIAL.

In the front window of the Post Office may be seen a drawing of a Memorial Clock designed to be erected on the oval center plot at the station. It is the proposition of the Narberth Home Guards, a town clock was also the object selected by the Committee from St. Margaret's Church, and if erected as designed would be a distinctive tribute to every man who entered the service from Narberth, as it would have inscribed thereon the names of all our Narberth boys who entered the service. These names would appear directly under the four faces of the clock. Special location for the names of those who died in the service is provided immediately under the electric lights on the four corners which are so placed as to illuminate the faces of the clock at night. Application has been made for one of the cannons which were captured from the Germans, which, if secured, would also be placed on the plot. With appropriate cement walks and re-planting with grass and evergreens, this could be made a very beautiful and most appropriate memorial to our soldiers and sailors.

DEATH OF VICENZA WETHERILL.

Mr. Vicenza Wetherill, of 200 Dudley avenue, passed away on Sunday afternoon, February 23rd. On March 20th he would have reached his 87th birthday, and up until a very few months ago was able to go about town on pleasant days. He is survived by Mrs. Wetherill and their three children, Claude S. Wetherill, of Doylestown, and the Misses Nellie and Maud Wetherill, who live with their parents. Mr. Wetherill was laid to rest on Wednesday in the cemetery at Doylestown, his home town.

The annual report of the Narberth Building and Loan Association is printed in this issue, and shows that the earnings for the past year were eight per cent. If there are any better investments in this vicinity we do not know of them, and when you consider that this is a Narberth institution, managed by Narberth residents, with most of the stockholders from Narberth, and a large proportion of the mortgages held on Narberth real estate you should say to yourself, "I had better join this Association, where I can see how my money is invested, and where I know personally all the Directors, rather than make an investment where I don't know anything about the business but what I am told."

One of the best ways to carry building and loan stock is to take shares out in each series, so that at the end of eleven and a half years when the first series that you hold comes due, you receive a return from your investment every six months afterward.

If one new share were taken out every six months, you would start out by paying each month a dollar, which would gradually increase until at the time your first series matured, you would be paying at the rate of twenty-three dollars a month, and would then receive two hundred dollars every six months as long as you kept taking out new stock, or if you decide to stop at the time your first series matured, you would receive two hundred dollar each six months for the next eleven and a half years and your payments into the Association would decrease each six months by a dollar, until all your series had been paid off.

Remember that the new series opens on Thursday evening, March the 6th, and that the Directors meet in Council Chamber from 7 until 9 to receive the dues.

If you are thinking of buying a home or intend some day to change your mortgage into the Building and Loan Association, why wait, but come to the next meeting and take out some shares; all you think you can afford, and when you are ready to either buy your home or place your mortgage in the Building and Loan, you will be that far ahead.

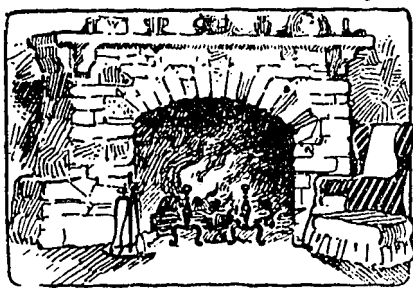

Our last series was the largest one the Association has ever had, and came out right in the midst of Liberty Loan campaigns, and from the reports we are getting, this series will be even greater than the last, so increase your holding if you are already a stockholder, and if you have not become one, make a new beginning on March the 6th, so that the Narberth Building and Loan Association will be known as the best along the whole Main Line.

CLUB DANCE.

The Women's Community Club will hold their dance in Elm Hall Monday night, March 17th. Exhibitions will be given by professional dancers, Rogers and Rogers, and other well-known artists.

Tickets, $1.00, may be obtained from Mrs. C. P. Fowler or any of the club members.

It is earnestly requested that all members will make their ticket returns at the meeting Tuesday, if possible.

The Narberth Needlework Guild wish to thank Our Town and all our other friends who helped to make our Home Bake on Washington's Birthday such a big success. We know all our friends will be interested to learn that we cleared $65.35. Again thanks.

The Civic Association has arranged a plan whereby a tree can be planted for each boy in the service. If you want a tree for a particular boy, get in touch with H. R. Hillegas, Chairman of the Garden Committee, who will give you full particulars.

The women of the Needlework Guild cleared more than $60 at their home bake in the old Post Office on Washington's Birthday. The funds thus secured will be used by these energetic ladies to purchase materials which, under their rapid manipulation, will soon be converted into dresses and other garments for the orphan children in France.

Last week's building and loan announcement indicated that the society's earnings were nearly double the interest savings funds pay. As a matter of fact, the earnings for the last period represented a return of 8%, more than double the saving funds rate. New series will be issued Thursday, March 6th, 1919.

The illustrated lecture on "Memorials Erected in the Past," by Professor Wm. G. Casner, last week, in the Y. M. C. A., was timely and very interesting to those who are endeavoring to select a suitable memorial to indicate our appreciation of the services rendered by our boys. Professor Casner, who resides in Narberth, is an authority on matters of this kind.

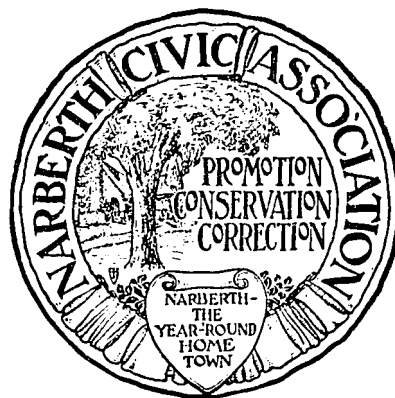

Nazimova, who has undoubtedly established herself among the best of screen actresses, will be seen in "Eye for Eye" at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Thursday. The story of the play concerns a Belouin girl who was cast off by her tribe for helping a French officer to escape, and there are many moments when the work of the great artist is superb.

The first order of garden seeds, amounting to about 70 pounds, has been forwarded by the Food Conservation Committee of the Community Club. It looks as if there would be some mighty good things to eat in Narberth next summer. Stop at the old Post Office next Saturday afternoon and leave your order. Some seeds will be on hand to sell.

Tuesday afternoon, March 4, at 2.30, the Community Club will meet with the school children in the Assembly Room of the High School, and the subject for the afternoon will be "Gardens" and how to have the best ones. Parents of the school children (and anyone else interested in the home garden) are most cordially invited to attend. There will be a good speaker for the occasion and the Hospitality Committee will have a little something to serve the scholars. Be sure to come.

There is one intensely patriotic family in this town who had three boys in the service, one in the Army, one in the Navy and one in the Marines. They each now claim that the war was won by the particular branch of the service to which he was attached, and each is ready to prove his case at any time by facts and figures. As they are all as good at proving their case as they were

TO ALL RESIDENTS OF NARBERTH.

There has in the past been just a little misunderstanding regarding subscriptions to Our Town and membership in the Civic Association.

Up until a year ago there was an arrangement by which one remittance covered both a voting membership in the Association and a year's subscription to Our Town.

It was found necessary to change this arrangement and to separate the two, so that moneys for subscriptions to Our Town should be sent to Miss Mazie J. Simpson, Cashier, P. O. Box No. 118, and dues for sustaining or voting membership in the Civic Association sent to R. J. Edgar, Treasurer, P. O. Box No. 601.

The regular meeting of the Narberth Civic Association was held in the Y. M. C. A. (Continued on Page 4.)

OUR SERVICE FLAG.

Where is the Service Flag and the large American Flag which were provided and which were to be displayed? Does anyone know what has happened to these large flags? Funds were solicited from the school children to purchase a Service Flag. Was it not the intention that the flag should be used for the purpose of showing how many of our boys were in the service?

Considerable money was collected several months ago for these flags, and they were noticed hanging out for a few days in the space in front of the Post Office, but now, when our boys come home, there is no Service Flag, no American Flag nor any other emblem to indicate interest in the boys. In some towns it is possible to have at least a piece of muslin tacked up with the words "Welcome Home, Boys," or some such words, but we do not even have that.

Is somebody "slacking," or are our people thinking "big ideas" so intently that these minor things do not count?

SOLDIERS' MEMORIALS.

To the Editor of Our Town:

What is the most fitting manner in which to embody the feeling of gratitude for the service the men of this nation have rendered to their country and the other countries of the world in the "Great World War"? is a question which is being thoughtfully discussed from one end of this land to the other.

Looking back to the similar conditions which existed at the close of the Civil War, and remembering some of the mistakes that were made then, we can agree with Governor Sprout, who in his inaugural address recently reminded us that it would be well "to temper patriotic zeal with sound judgment" in the erection of the Soldiers' Memorials.

Approaching this subject with mixed motives, we must be careful to discriminate and allow only right ones to govern our final decision, as to what would be fitting for Narberth to do to perpetuate in honor the memory of those who went to war in our defense.

All sorts of things are being suggested and done, from the naming of a day in the year to triumphal arches; churches, concert halls, community houses, bridges, roadways, play grounds, tree planting and a host of other things have their advocates, and Advisory Art Councils have sprung up in Washington, Philadelphia, New York and elsewhere, for the purpose of giving these plans proper direction. One organization of these art experts has received requests from 240 different communities for this expert advice.

The memorials of all ages show two types, those which could be thought of only as commemorative, such as the Obelisks of Egypt or the Triumphal Arches of Rome, or those which may have been erected as memorials, but which are not distinctly expressive of the memorial quality and from use and other associations lose the very thought which inspired their erection, as, for instance, the Temple of Caesar in the Forum Romanum.

Three motives should govern the main direction of all these efforts—Gratitude, Patriotism and Civic Pride.

Nothing we could do that would express our gratitude would be too much. What we do should stand for patriotism so distinctly that in the years to come future generations could not say we built from any other motive, and it should be so well done that every citizen could point to it with a feeling of satisfied pride, and it should be of such a character that it would need no endowment fund to insure its perpetuity.

What a splendid thing it would be if we should build a Soldiers' Memorial which so clearly showed our gratitude and patriotism and placed it in such a location that not only would every man, woman and child who lives here, but the thousands from Maine to California passing through on trains, take note of this patriotic endeavor and feel the inspiration that came from two deeds well done—that of our soldier boys of our home town and our own.

C.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The childlike simplicity of our pet Cub becomes bearlike when anyone he considers an outsider mentions school matters, more particularly if said outsider is not a taxpayer. He seems to think that only taxpayers have a right to vote and to express opinions in Our Town. The trouble with his argument is that all the voters in Narberth are taxpayers, even if they do not personally hand in the money to Mr. Jones, for the tax is paid with the rent. Just to ease his mind, I will say that I am a taxpayer, and probably pay as much or more than he does in taxes in Narberth.

Our Cub has not the least aversion to perverting the facts and twisting them to suit his present mood. What I said a year ago was simply that with the great loss of time by the pupils caused by having the school closed on account of an epidemic it would appear to me as feasible to have the sessions continued later in the season, weather and climatic conditions permitting. I had no intention that the faculty should work gratis. Such details could be left to the Cub's liberal father. I did not rush into the school house and storm about at any time, but simply went there, as I believed to be my right, and asked the principal about this matter, as he was the highest authority present at the time. Had the president of the School Board been present I should have passed over the principal and consulted the president of the Board. I would even have consulted the Cub or his father had they been present. As to that unprintable opinion a School Director is said to have expressed about me, I do not believe that our School Board has a person so ill bred that he would make remarks behind my back that he would not care to make to my face, let alone that the said remarks could have been unprintable.

The Cub is still evading the issue! Why not pay the teachers a salary equal to that of an ordinary typist in your office, Cub?

As to the wages paid the employees of the Garden Nurseries,—if the Cub would urge that our teachers be paid as great a percentage above the average wages paid for teaching in the Philadelphia district as the Garden employees are paid over and above the wages paid by the other nurseries in the Philadelphia district, I should have had no occasion to mention teachers' salaries.

Why do I pester the Cub about school matters? Because the word SCHOOL to him is like a red rag to a bull, and I like to see him rave.

A. E. WOHLERT.

P. S.—How long has the Cub been a "taxpayer" in Narberth?

WHAT ARE WE ALL GETTING OUT OF OUR HARD WORK?

You can't have the penny and the cake, too, says the old copy-book maxim, and that would seem to mean that if you want to save money you have to forego some of the things the other fellow has who entertains different notions, but is that altogether true?

Don't those folks you know to be careful in all their expenditures, men and women who are constantly laying up against a rainy day, don't these good people appear to be extracting all that is fine out of life, yet saving and saving all the time, and in no case would it seem that they are at a disadvantage with their less provident friends nor that hardships are theirs on account of the fact that they plan for to-morrow as they live to-day?

It's a state of mind altogether. Spend all you make, disregard the value and service of a dollar, and the chances are you will get just about 60 cents out of it. The wise man, however, the diligent, far-seeing fellow, trained by his saving experience, by his habits of thrift, gets a full run for his money every time, and he has as many of the good things, tremendously more real pleasure, a more wholesome existence generally and incidentally a nice few dollars to put away every week or month. Make your bets every time on the men and women who are long-headed enough to save—who are intolerant of the idea that they work to-day for to-day only, who scorn the thought that they are incapable of maintaining themselves on an amount smaller than their present income.

Most assuredly can you have the penny and the cake—and choicer cake, too.

And there's no better way to cultivate the right idea than through building and loan membership, regular, clock-like, monthly payments, $1.00 per share, and as your investment mounts up right along with it comes greater courage, better perspective and a viewpoint totally different and decidedly more profitable than that which governs the chap who just seems to be able to get by and no more, no matter how fast the raises come.

Join the stalwarts, then—take stock in the Narberth Building and Loan Association when the new series is issued at the next meeting, Thursday, March 6, 1919, at Elm Hall. All the profits go to the stockholders—good profits, too—nearly double what the saving banks pay—and you will save not in a haphazard way, whenever the spirit prompts, but each and every month, accepting the obligation in a real American fashion.

And you might put the children in while you're about it—two or three shares for each of them—a nice bit of change, $400 or $600 for them a few years hence.

The new series is going to be the biggest ever, and the date is Thursday, March 6, 1919, at Elm Hall. Make sure to be on hand.

WHO IS HE?

The day after the Lusitania was sunk, he went about the streets demanding that the United States declare war immediately.

He was very impatient of note-writing, and announced that, if he were President, he would send every battleship to France, and clean up those murderous Huns.

When finally war was declared, he said he felt that, as an American citizen, he had gotten back his self-respect and that now we must see the thing through.

He responded to all appeals to support the Government, indorsed the draft, and with a high heart watched his own kindred march away to the ships that were to bear them to the hell of the trenches.

He worked hard, cut out luxuries, skimped on coal, ate his oatmeal without sugar, bought Liberty Bonds and gave to war charities with an abandon that was thrilling.

They told him that the war would likely continue to the fall of 1919, but he said it didn't matter; America had enough men and money to see it through, and if the worst happened, although he was beyond the enlistment age, he wasn't beyond the fighting age.

And then, one day came the news that the armistice had been signed, and he grabbed his hat and rushed into the street, and joined in the biggest and most spontaneous celebration America has ever known. He felt that it was good to have lived to take a part in it.

And then for him the war was over! He didn't care how the demobilization was to be accomplished. It made no difference whether our troops in Germany were supported or not. He lost interest in statistics showing the number of wounded and maimed that have to be cared for.

He knew that the sudden ending of the war left us with tremendous obligations that have to be liquidated—he didn't care. He was through. No more Liberty Bonds for him.

Now, we shall not point a moral. There is no intention of commenting on his course. Our only object is to describe him so that you may recognize him when you see him. Who is he? When you have signaled him out, suppose you take the matter up with him and see whether his course is consistent.

Another Study Class was organized last Wednesday evening with the pastor as the teacher. This class also will meet for six weeks and the text-book used is "Money, the Acid Test." Church Notes.

Mr. Horace Smedley, recently released from military service, is back at his usual place as Secretary of the Bible School. Everyone smiles and Horace gets the glad hand.

For twenty successive months, with but a few exceptions, the Hand of Fellowship has been given to new members at the Communion service. A number will be received Sunday morning.

We give a special invitation to both young and old to attend our Young People's service Sunday evening. This society has had a marvelous growth this winter. The attendance and interest has been most encouraging. It is not our purpose to draw members and regular attendants away from other churches, but to get those not attending anywhere to join in this great work.

All those not having a church home in Narberth are welcome to worship with us.

Scout News

The regular weekly meeting of the Boy Scouts of America was held Tuesday evening, 7.30 o'clock, at the Y. M. C. A., having the large attendance of 23. Several Scouts were presented with medals for Red Cross subscription drive, the highest winner of a medal being Irving Dodge, who led the others by a small majority.

A new Scout was brought in by Irving Dodge and will be initiated at an early date. It is hoped that he will not be afraid to attend meetings on account of this announcement.

Rosecoe Smedley, our eminent scientist and brother in arms, has been busy building an airplane with which he proposes to capture the Aviation Merit Badge. We sincerely wish him luck, but he must not expect flowers from our troop, because just at present we are struggling to pay for a Liberty Bond.

Most of our telephone books have been delivered and as the slips have to be turned in on Friday 28th, it is hoped that the rest will be received by our Scoutmaster in a short time.

Coming back to the Merit Badge seekers, we have another member to praise, Scout Dodge, of the Bear Patrol. Don't forget, Fred, that Merit Badges cost 15 cents apiece, and not win too many.

Well, I guess we have about used up our store of news about the doings of the Scouts, so you must wait for another week for any more news.

THE TWIN D'S.

SCHOOL NOTES

At the stroke of 1.30 last Friday afternoon, February 21st, in honor of Washington's Birthday, the entire Elementary and High School assembled in the auditorium.

The afternoon's program differed in a great many ways from the usual entertainment, the main feature being the splendid singing by the school body.

The guests occupied the platform with the exception of several Directors, who evidently wished to escape the flattering gaze of the public.

One exceptional feature of the program was the one-minute speeches by the senior boys, which awoke the audience to the fact that we have future orators in our midst.

After several bribes from the school body in the shape of musical selections, the Directors were lured from their hiding places and walked to the platform amid a chorus of cheers. Ex-Director Ridge, the guest of honor, addressed the audience in a way which will be remembered, because of his special style.

In short, the afternoon was entirely satisfactory to everyone present.

Mr. Emmett, our Physical Director, returned to school on Monday morning, after a week in the hospital, which seemed months to us. The pupils of both Elementary and High School buildings received him with not only applause, but cheerings and school yells. Mr. Emmett then gave a short talk on his stay at the hospital. He told us how thankful we should be to be able to go to "school."

Athletics.

The basketball season at Narberth High School has been unusually brilliant.

The girls' team has lost but two out of nine games, and the boys only two out of eleven, while both teams have won all the games played on our own floor. This has been about the best all-around season that the school has known, and Mr. Emmett is to be congratulated on the splendid showing of the teams against some of the largest and modern High Schools.

Several games were played this week. On Wednesday the Sophomores played Darby Sophs, and on Friday the boys' and girls' varsity teams played at Abington. The results will be published later.

The Freshmen last Friday defeated Darby Freshmen in a close game, 27 to 17. This was the second victory over Darby.

Next Friday the Eighth Grade team goes to Hatboro to play the Hatboro Eighth Grade.

There seems to be a fever in the school for basketball teams, and so far none of the class teams have been defeated.

1919 WAR STAMP SALES.

Official reports show Montgomery County as seventh in the list of counties of the State in the sale of War Stamps and Thrift Stamps for 1919.

We should have a pride in having our county make large investment in these War measure securities. They pay 4 4/10% interest and may be cashed on ten days' notice to Postmaster.

C. A. on Thursday evening, February 20, at 8:30 o'clock.

The motion was made and passed that the Secretary secure prices on eight east iron signs, with east standards, to mark the eight entrances to the Borough, and to also secure prices on erecting these signs, in concrete foundations. The proposition to be submitted to the Borough Council for their approval.

The Tree Planting Committee reported that the cost of a suitable out-door case, to display the tree planting charter, would cost from $15.00 to $18.00. Mr. H. R. Hillegas, the chairman, was instructed to purchase the case and communicate with the proper officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for permission to place the case in a prominent location in the station.

The Secretary was instructed to communicate with all Main Line Civic Associations and kindred organizations, asking that they co-operate with us, using our combined influence to have the Pennsylvania Railroad Company change their train schedule so that there would be a train leaving Broad Street Station later than the 11:55 P. M. The Secretary was also instructed to communicate with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company requesting that they have the train passing Narberth at 7:48 P. M. stop to receive passengers, as this would be a great convenience to Narberth residents, and would seem like a very small inconvenience to the railroad schedule.

The Secretary was instructed to apply to the proper Government Department, requesting that Narberth be given one or more of the guns captured during the war by the American troops, and to be placed in a prominent location as a souvenir. The Secretary was also instructed to investigate the ways and means and approximate cost of having the souvenirs transported to Narberth, and erected in a suitable location.

Messrs. Jacobs, Leos and Lanahan were appointed on a committee to arrange for nomination of new officers and directors, to be elected at the annual meeting on Thursday evening, March 20, 1919.

Resolved, That the By-Laws of the Narberth Civic Association be amended with regard to the office of the Secretary-Treasurer by separating those offices and having two officers instead of one filling both positions, as at present.

Above was offered voted on and carried by the meeting, and an amendment was made to the By-Laws.

A motion was made that the Civic Association go on record to protest to the Public Service Commission the recent changes in rates filed by the Springfield Consolidated Water Company. Motion was seconded and carried.

It was moved that a committee be appointed to arrange for the Out-door Spring Flower Show and consider the advisability of holding a Floral Parade of decorated vehicles, etc. The motion was seconded and carried.

The Secretary was also instructed to communicate with the Narberth Building and Loan Association and the Narberth Fire Company, asking them to co-operate with us in the "Own Your Home Campaign," to be made in Philadelphia and vicinity during March and April, by the Philadelphia Real Estate Board.

Mr. H. A. Jacobs was appointed a committee of one, to communicate with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company regarding securing the old Post Office Building, as a permanent meeting place and headquarters for the Civic Association.

CHANGE OF DATE.

The Chairman of the Memorial Committee has found it necessary to change the date of the meeting of the General Committee set for Friday evening, March 7th.

Please be on hand in the Council Chamber on Friday evening, March 14th, with as much information on your suggestion for a reception and memorial as possible.

CARL B. METZGER,
Chairman.
T. NOEL BUTLER,
Secretary.

Fertilizer for Community Gardens

A price has been obtained on a carload of about 30 tons of best grade horse manure for vegetable gardens of $1.75 per ton. Shipment can be made by the dealer promptly from Philadelphia. Mr. C. P. Cook has kindly agreed to weigh and deliver the manure to the gardens at cost of men and team, figured at $1.00 per hour.

Fertilizing the ground is just as important as selection of good seeds. Those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity should communicate with Mrs. A. B. Ross, Chairman Food Conservation Committee Woman's Community Club, 104 Forrest avenue, phone Narberth 1639-W. Two of our local gardeners have already requested that they be listed for 8 tons. Orders should be for one or more tons, and cash should accompany the order. Settlement for cost of delivery can be made later. If one ton should be too much for one garden, doubtless arrangements could be made by adjoining gardeners for a division.

The time is rapidly approaching for making the gardens ready for the coming season; therefore no time should be lost in making arrangements through Mrs. Ross for seeds and fertilizer at cost.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
